

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement

December 15, 2004

News Release

ICE DEPORTS FRENCHMAN FOR SUSPICIOUS BEHAVIOR

BOSTON—U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) officers deported French citizen Said Guettaf Thursday just two weeks after he was admitted to the United States as a visitor following the discovery of information that he might injure himself or others.

Guettaf was initially admitted to the United States under the visa waiver program Nov. 9.

U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers became suspicious of writings in Guettaf's possession, so he was referred to ICE for interview.

Following an interview Nov. 19, ICE special agents arrested Guettaf and he was processed for removal as a visa waiver violator.

Guettaf was escorted by ICE detention and removal officers as a precaution and turned over to authorities in France.

ICE #

U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement is the largest investigative arm of the Department of Homeland Security.